

Name: _____

Date: _____

Irish Legends – an Introduction

Follow Along

1. The Goddess _____ was Ireland's earth goddess.
2. The Tuatha de Dana came to Ireland aboard _____ which they _____ to ensure they did not return to their homeland.
3. _____ was the king of the Fomorians.
4. During a battle between the Tuatha de Danan and the Fomorians, Lugh used a _____ to kill the King of the Fomorians, assuring victory to the Tuatha de Danan.
5. The children of Lir were turned into _____ by their step-mother and were cursed for _____ years.
6. The Milesians arrived on Ireland's coast travelling from _____.
7. The defeated Tuatha de Danan became the _____-folk
8. The straits of Moyle are in the _____ most part of Ireland.
9. Setanta's dream was to become a _____ for the king of _____.
10. Setanta killed a _____ in self defense and became known as Cú Chulainn.
11. Mebd was the _____ of Connacht.
12. Queen Mebd was one _____ shy of equal wealth to her husband.
13. Queen Mebd went to battle for the great brown bull of Ulster. It was decided the bull would be fought for in _____ combat.
14. Fionn mac Cumhaill was raised in secret by a woman _____ and a woman _____.
15. Fionn gained all the _____ in the world by eating a specific salmon.
16. Legend states Fionn created _____ because he wanted to fight a Scottish giant.