

Slave

A person held or owned in service to another

Vision

Message relayed in a trance or dream

Banish

To drive out or remove from one's home or place

Crosier

A staff with a shepherd's crook – symbol of power or authority

Druid

One of an ancient Celtic priesthood

Monastery

Groups of houses for people under religious vows

Oral Tradition

History, stories, or beliefs transferred by word of mouth

Mythical

A historical imaginary tale or thing

Pirate

Persons that rob ships at sea

Priesthood

Vocation of person
vowing to live a life of religious piety

Shamrock

Green three-leafed plant in the clover
family

Shepherd

Person who tends sheep

Paganism

Nature religion with multiple gods

Patron Saint

A saint regarded as the special protector
of a person or group

Inhabited

A place that is lived in
by people or animals

Miracle

A very unusual event that seems impossible

Wilderness

Land empty of paths;
a land with natural
growth

Guidance

To give direction

Ridding

To make free

Slither

To slide on one's belly like a snake

Portal

A door or bridge to another place

Despair

Utter loss of hope

Quench

Put out; to bring to an end

Adversaries

An opponent,
competitor or enemy

Abyss

Bottomless gulf or pit

Influence

Act of producing or causing an effect

Missionary

A person on a specific goal, usually to convert others to their beliefs

Civilization

High level of cultural & technical development

University

Place of higher learning

Whirlwind

A rotating windstorm

Vaporous

Something with little physical presence

Poised

To be ready