

Name: _____

Date/Period: _____

Eire, The _____ Isle
Land of _____ & _____s

1. Cattle Grazing by _____ Inagh is in the Connemara region, County Galway. It is known for people speaking _____, Ireland's ancient language.
2. The River Erriff empties into the _____ at Killarney harbor. It is home to endangered species like the European _____ and the freshwater pearl _____. It is also home to Atlantic Salmon. A famous legend is the _____ of _____.
3. Lower Lough Erne is a _____ in County Fermanagh, Northern Ireland. It is the setting of a legend called "The _____ of Lough Erne. The prince interacts with a King of the _____ who ruled the underwater world of Lower Lough Erne.
4. The Evening Ritual, is a picture of _____ being herded to a new place in Clonmore, County Longford. The name Clonmore means "big _____". In the _____th century, people moved away from rural areas and into the cities.
5. The _____ at Kilkenny is part of the ruins of an old _____. The invading Normans and English built _____ castles walls to protect themselves from _____ attacks.

Eire, Art Exhibit Follow Along, Pg 2

6. Curaghmore, meaning "great _____" is the location of an estate. The land was granted to the de la Poer family by the _____. It was common for invaders to evict the _____ and give the land to their own people.

7. Gougane Barra was named after Saint _____. The valley is a haven for rare plants and animals like the Killarney _____ and the Marsh Fritillary _____. In 1938 a small forest _____ was created in the valley.

8. Torc Mountain, meaning "wild _____" in Irish, was the home of the Beaker folk, who were _____ miners. In 1932 the land was donated and became the first national _____ in Ireland.

9. _____ Cascades is a waterfall with a legend for its beginning. A man, cursed by the devil, turned into a _____ every night. One day a farmer figured out his secret, and the boar burst into _____. He threw himself into Devil's Punchbowl _____ and the water overflowed creating the waterfall.

10. Sunset Over Inishturk is a small island off the west coast of _____. In the _____th century a monastery was built on the island. Peace was shattered when the _____ began raiding the coasts.